dress, the latter not touching the ground by three inches. In this raiment she is per-fectly free, looks the same as any ordinary well-dressed woman, and is not conspicu-ous in any sense of the word. The chief comfort to be taken with this style is the fact tlat the woman is perfectly free. She coes not fear a rainy day or She complete to New York city on Thursday, where she will remain during the coming winter...Dr. and a mudly street, her dress escapes all soil at the foot and she does not appear in the attitude of the woman who holds her dress up in one hand, her umbrella and packages in the other, and then gets a drabbled skirt after all. After the discussion those present thought it would add to the convenience of women if they would follow dress reform as far as to have the walking dress made shorter, and do away with the dress made shorter, and do away with the awarkness of holding it up. Having one shoulder considerably lower than the other could be thus avoided.

LATING THE CORNER-STONE.

Ceremonies Inaugurating the Erection of a New M. E. Church at Connersville.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal CONNERSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 14.-The corner-stone of the new M. E. Church was laid here to-day with appropriate ceremonies. At 10:30 A. M. Rev. J. W. Mellender preached an able sermon at Temperance Hall. The exercises proper began at 2:30 P. M. A large assemblage was gathered from the town and surrounding country to witness the event. Rev. J. A. Sargent, presiding elder of the district, delivered the invocation, which was followed by a hymn from the church choir. An excellent memorial address was made by Mr. John G. Chaffee.

The address by Rev. J. D. Walsh, of Cincinnati, was excellent, and befitting the

The last feature was placing the corner-stone in position, which was done by Rev. Mr. Walsh. It was of white lime-stone, and Mr. Walsh. It was of white inde-stone, and contained a box about eight by ten inches in which was placed a Bible, Hymnal, Discipline of the M. E. Church, copies of cipline of the M. E. Church, copies of cipline of the M. E. Church, copies of church and city papers, names of pastors and presiding elders, officials of church, city and county, school officials and teachers. The names of President Harrison, Vice-president Morton, Governor Hovey and United States Treasurer Huston, also a $1 note bearing the name of J. N. Huston as Treasurer; the names of the members of church and Sunday-school, memorial roll, and a programme of the proceedings of the day.

The new M. E. Church, when completed will be one of the finest in the State, and will be built of white limestone at the approximate cost of $85,000.

Astronomical Phenomena. UTICA. N. Y., Sept. 14.—Prof. C. H. F. Peters, of Litchfield Obse-vatory, Hamilton College, discovered an asteroid on Aug. 25. The new planet ranks as No. 287, in the agreeoid group. The first computations appeared to show an un-precedented fact in astronomy that a portion of the new asteroid's orbit was within a portion of the orbit of Mars. All asteroids here tofore discovered have their orbits outside that Noted Bandit Sentenced. Sax Diego., Cal., Sept. 14.—Sylvester Morales, the noted bandit, who for some months terrorized southern California, pleaded guilty to the charge of robbery this afternoon, and was sentenced by Judge Puterbaugh to the Folsom State prison for life.

When it can be prepared otherwise, it is never a good plan to set out young trees of any kind in a grass sod. The plants and roots seem to choke the trees so that a good growth cannot be made.
